

Central and East European Studies
presents

Researching the Famine (Holodomor) of 1932-33

Archival Evidence in the Sumy Oblast of Eastern Ukraine

(In Ukrainian with simultaneous translation)

Hennadiy Ivanushchenko

A former director of the State Archive of Sumy Oblast (2005–10), he has worked in archives in London and Cleveland, and is the chief editor of two internet-based projects: the Sumy historical portal (www.history.sumynews.com) and the Archive of the Ukrainian Information Service in London (www.ounuis.info). He has edited two collections of documents from the Sumy archive, and has authored books on the Ukrainian Revolution of 1917-20, the national liberation movement in Eastern Ukraine, and the Great Famine (Holodomor) of 1932-33.

Wednesday, November 20, 2013

2.30-4.00 pm

University College 201 (Conference Room)

ALL ARE WELCOME!

For more information, contact Magda.Blackmore@umanitoba.ca

Sponsored by

Central and East European Studies Program, Department of German and Slavic Studies, and the League of Ukrainian Canadians

UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA

Faculty of Arts

Department of German and Slavic Studies

328 Fletcher Argue Building, Winnipeg, MB R3T 5V5

204-474-9370 www.umanitoba.ca/german_and_slavic