Your financial support would be greatly appreciated!

2 Corinthians 9:13

By their approval of this service, they will glorify God because of your submission flowing from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others,

The General Council (SOBOR) of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada is held every five years. The 2015 SOBOR will be held from July 13th to the 18th in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Hundreds of delegates and clergy, representing Ukrainian Orthodox congregations from across Canada, will be gathering to address matters concerning management and administration, mission efforts, evangelization, outreach ministries, financial sustainability, amongst other matters.

Delegates come together to assess the Church's ministry overall and its direction as it seeks to witness for Christ in our parishes and their local community. Our goal is to bring more people into the true faith as expressed in the historic church of Orthodox Christianity, which can be accomplished in many ways. General Councils are those forums where our visions can be set forth. Since the General Council (SOBOR) is vested with the supreme power in all temporal matters of the Church and constitutes its highest legislative and administrative authority, therefore all parishes should strive to send at least one delegate to the SOBOR who may participate in the decision making regarding our future and ministry.

Assemblies of such magnitude encounter substantial costs, therefore your financial support is greatly appreciated. We appeal to the faithful of our Church, to their generosity, for whatever donation they wish to make. We appeal our parish councils and their affiliated organizations for their financial support. Charitable tax receipts will be issued for all donations, $25.00 or more. Names of all such donors will be published in the "SOBOR 2015 Binder", provided your donation is received by June 26, 2015
